

Course Code:
 Course Title: Change Masters - Module #5 - Non-Situational Integrity

Sample:

Question:

Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>
<input type="text"/>

Question: Where does the characteristic of integrity begin?

1 Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
At school
In the workplace
In the home
With our childhood friends

Question: Which of the following is NOT synonomous with integrity?

2 Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
Honesty
Morals
Popularity
Ethics

Question: People who try the hardest to impress others, are often the least impressive.

3 Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
<input type="text"/>

TRUE
FALSE

Question: Which of the following is NOT a definition of "sine cera?"

4	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	Being sincere
	Without wax
	Being fake
	Being honest

Question: Being able to defend your convictions in the face of great social pressure is a principle of integrity.

5	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	TRUE
	FALSE

Question: Being politically correct is always a sign of integrity.

6	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	TRUE
	FALSE

Question: People with high integrity don't make mistakes.

7	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	TRUE
	FALSE

Question: What did the CEOs interviewed by Fortune Magazine say were the most important qualities for hiring and promoting executives?

8	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	Profit driven
	Competent and good communication skills
	Highly organized
	Having integrity and trustworthiness

Question: Which of the following is NOT a core value of integrity?

9	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	Justice
	Ambition
	Fair-play
	Honesty

Question: As long as leaders are honest in their professional life, what they do in their personal life doesn't impact integrity.

10	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	TRUE
	FALSE

Question:

11	Integrity is not based on the situation. You either have it or you don't.
	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	TRUE
	FALSE

Question:

12	People with high integrity may risk being unpopular.
	Response		Indicate Correct Answer with an "x"
	TRUE
	FALSE

